New Mexico Department of Justice

Vadim Witt, CPA, CFE, CAMS-FCI

Director, Financial Crimes Unit
New Mexico Department of Justice

Vadim Witt is the Director of the Financial Crimes Unit at the New Mexico Department of Justice (NMDOJ) where he leads a specialized team dedicated to investigating financial crimes across the state.

With close to seven years of experience in financial investigations, his work focuses on complex cases involving fraud, embezzlement, money laundering and corruption. He and his team are responsible for collaborating closely with state and federal agencies to deliver quality investigations.

Witt is an expert at organizing key data points that serve as central pieces of evidence in criminal and civil cases. He has played a key role in high-profile investigations by leveraging tools such as Excel, CFIS and Valid8 to uncover critical financial data.

During his career, Witt has held leadership roles within the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, including Board Member at Large, Vice Chair of the Education Committee and Chair of the Policy Committee. He also served for six years in the U.S. Army Reserve.

Witt earned both his bachelor’s and master’s degrees from New Mexico State University in accounting. He also holds certifications as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) and Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist-Financial Crimes Investigation (CAMS-FCI).
